Third Issuance: 1:00 pm Tuesday, Nov 27, 2018

Impacts

- Widespread rainfall starting on today, possibly heavy rain Wednesday night and Thursday morning.
- Wet roads will impact commutes through Thursday.
- Mudslides possible along Highway 1 in Big Sur.
- Strong and potentially damaging winds on Thursday can bring down trees and cause power outages.
- High Surf along coast starting Tuesday and continuing into Friday.

Timing and Strength

- Rain will gradually spread from north to south this afternoon and evening.
- Periods of rain likely to continue Tuesday night and Wednesday.
- Widespread rain redevelops by Wednesday night and continues into Thursday. Rain may be heavy at times Wednesday night and Thursday morning. Precipitation should turn showery late Thursday and end by Friday. More rain possible over the weekend.
- Southerly winds begin strengthening late Wednesday and will gradually veer and become more west to northwest on Thursday.
